

Christ the King Catholic School School-Wide Goals

Students will . . .

- act in accordance with Gospel values in the Catholic tradition.
- show respect for all of God's diverse creation.
- interact appropriately with members of the community.
- exhibit self-discipline and responsibility.
- express a love of learning and excitement about life's possibilities.
- use effective strategies to analyze and solve problems.
- demonstrate the abilities to gather, synthesize and communicate information, ideas and emotions.
- apply organizational skills and study skills.
- exhibit competent technological skills.
- display leadership qualities.
- express and show an appreciation for creativity.